Lenovo L25e-40 Monitor

The ace at work & entertainment.

Designed to help you see more and do more!

The Lenovo L25e-40 Monitor wants you to have more fun whether you're working or enjoying a movie, and it's got more room to help you do it. Its 24.5-inch screen helps your work-related documents look clearer and bigger. A 3-side NearEdgeless display delivers a distraction-free viewing panel that's virtually gapless in a dual monitor setup. Entertainment gets better too, as you sit back with your family and experience the VA panel's crisp, clear images with no color distortion even at extreme angles of up to 178°. Colors look more vivid with this display's 99% sRGB color space coverage and its 1920 x 1080 resolution delivers superior clarity and sharpness. Movie time and game time play out seamlessly and smoothly with its quick 75Hz[1] refresh rate which eliminates streaking, ghosting, image-tearing, and lagging. Connectivity is simply effortless with the monitor's HDMI 1.4 and VGA input ports. Groove to your favorite music with all its treble and thump by connecting the screen to external speakers via the 3.5 mm audio out port. Give your eyes the best protection from harmful blue light with the Lenovo L25e-40 Monitor's built-in Natural Low Blue Light technology that doesn't distort colors. Enjoy the luxury of tweaking display settings to your preference with Lenovo Artery Software[2]. Keep your desk looking clean and contemporary with the stand's wave pattern, which comes with a clever built-in phone stand and a clutter-free cable management system. Work for long hours in comfort by adjusting it to perfectly suit your seating position with the tilt stand. Whether you are working or entertaining, Lenovo's L25e-40 delivers best-in-class features that are powerful and pocket-friendly.

Visually 'Wow!'

The Lenovo L25e-40 Monitor helps you enjoy clear distortion-free views, even at 178° with its minimal 3-side NearEdgeless VA panel. Its FHD panel is great for color-critical work with rich, vivid colors supported by 99% sRGB color gamut and 125% sRGB color area. Its 24.5-inch screen helps you get more done on a larger canvas. Your visual experience gets crisper thanks to its 1920 x 1080 resolution.

Great for work and entertainment

Designed for a contemporary and minimal look, the Lenovo's L25e-40 Monitor is also functionally pleasing. Connect your computer to the monitor with ease using the HDMI 1.4 or VGA ports. Enjoy your favorite music on your preferred speakers or earphones using the audio out port. A Menu Joystick Control button brings effortless access to monitor settings. Movies and games get even more binge-worthy as the monitor's 75Hz[1] rapid refresh rate eliminate all ghosting, streaking, and image-tearing delivering smooth, seamless video.

Design that's suited to work

Hardware-embedded Natural Low Blue Light technology prevents visual fatigue, protecting your eyes from harmful blue light, without distorting colors. Best of all, Lenovo L25e-40 Monitor gives you the benefit of Lenovo Artery Software[2] for swift and simple display adjustments. Its stand tilts to adjust the monitor to make you more comfortable. A nifty phone rack on its stand keeps your phone in view and a clever cable management solution that keeps cables out of sight.
