

P2770FH

27" LCD Monitor

A monitor fast enough for gaming, movies and everything else in life.

Super Fast 1ms Response Time

The Samsung P2770FH features a lightning-fast, industry-leading 1 millisecond response time. The result? Stunning motion imagery for flat-out amazing gaming and multimedia.

High Dynamic Contrast Ratio

With an impressive 70,000:1 dynamic contrast ratio, you get bright whites and deep blacks that hold detail, and rich, subtly nuanced colors.

Highest Resolution Images

The Samsung P2770FH offers full 1920x1080 resolution, for the highest resolution images. Movies, games and videos will come to life with unprecedented crispness and clarity.

Fast, Easy Connectivity

HDMI connections provide the fastest, most secure way of connecting HD devices and experiencing the joys of digital output in its purest form. Whatever you need to connect, from DVD players and camcorders to video game consoles and digital cameras, it's connected with ease.

Perfect from Every Angle

Whether viewed face on, from above, from the side, or from below, Samsung's innovative MagicAngle ensures you see full brightness and color from every angle.

With an industry-leading 1 millisecond response time, the Samsung P2770FH is the ideal choice for gamers, video enthusiasts and movie production houses working with fast-motion graphics. All motion blur and ghosting are virtually eliminated, delivering stunning motion imaging that enhances movie watching, game playing and internet streaming. It's unanimous. Speed has never looked better. Business. Innovated.
